DESTINATION

Known for its most sophisticated nightlife and extraordinary sandy beaches, Mykonos is an island that never sleeps. Its azure seawaters and endless beach parties have made it famous around the world.

Mykonos easily captures the visitors interest, thanks to the great variety of choices offered here. There is something for everyone: Dazzling beaches, relentless nightlife, renowned restaurants, inspiring architecture, and an astoundingly diverse crowd. An island of opposites, the austere lines of its traditional architecture conceal opulent interiors of holiday villas owned by jet-setting pop stars and millionaires. The social whirlwind of the beach parties and nightlife vibrates against the tranquility of remote, secluded coves. Mykonos is the perfect getaway: somewhere you can find yourself as easily as you can lose yourself in the crowd.

WITHIN 5 MINUTES OF THE RESORT

The town of Chora

Located on the islands' western harbour, the "Chora" of Mykonos is a very beautiful old island town, which in the past had its own merchant fleet. Today miraculously, it maintains a balance between tourism-related development and the preservation of its very picturesque features. There are whitewashed houses, proud windmills, a multitude of chapels, busy back streets with balconies full of flowers and a multicoloured fleet of fishing boats in the port. There are a number of small museums in Mykonos town and, during the summer, there is an outdoor cinema and various art exhibitions, theatrical performances and concerts. In the background is the Paraportiani Church; alongside it, sea-washed "Little Venice". After sunset everything changes: crowds throng this luxurious marketplace and the restaurants, bars and discos consign the tiny town to the pleasures and the different rhythm of the night.

The town of Ano Mera

One of the most eastern sides of the island, a tranquil village in the midst of farms, is a lovely locale, known for its excellent taverns. It is ideal for bicycling and hiking, and there are beaches nearby for swimming and water-sports. You may also visit the two monasteries in the area, "Tourliani" and "Paleokastro". The monastery of Panaghia Tourliani at Ano Mera can be visited by prior arrangement

The Archaeological Museum

The Archaeological Museum, located alongside the harbour, was built circa 1900, mainly to house finds from the excavation of the "Pit of Purification" (dating from the 5th century B.C.) and the necropolis of Rhenia. There is a large collection of vessels especially represented of Cycladic ceramics dating from the Geometric period until the 6th cent. B.C. Also on exhibit there are wonderful black figure and red figure pottery and diverse finds, including Hellenistic period gravestones and other sculpture. Among the finds from Mykonos, especially impressive is the "Pithos of Mykonos": a large jar, (made in a workshop on Tinos the 7th cent. B.C.) richly decorated with bas-relief zones of bas-relief depicting various scenes from the Trojan War (the central composition shows Achaian warriors with the Trojan Horse). It is open from 8:30 am to 3:00 pm daily, except Monday and major public holidays.

The Folklore Museum

The Folklore Museum is located in an old, two-story, captain's house in the Kastro of Mykonos town, a few meters distant from the proud Paraportiani church. There are six main exhibition halls which house collections of antique furniture, Byzantine icons, Folkloric ceramics, historical commemorative plates, decorative prints and gravures, as well as embroidered and hand-woven fabrics, locks and keys, weights and measures, a lovely collection of model boats, and other historical artefacts. There are also import archives of manuscripts and printed matter, photographs, maps and a significant library. It is open from April to October from 4:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. daily except Sundays

The Agricultural Museum

Housed in a restored windmill with a wonderful view over the town. Don't miss the Panegyri of Trygos, held here on the second Sunday in September.

WITHIN 5-20 MINUTES OF THE RESORT

Beaches

Family style beaches or those frequented mainly by wind-surfers – or flocks of nudists. Enjoy a great variety of water-sports and the many beaches bars and restaurants. Most of the beaches are on the south side of the island. Among these are the much frequented Platy Gialos, Psarou, Ornos, Paranga “Paradise” (Kalamopodi), “Super Paradise” (Blintri), Elia, Kalafati, Kalo Livadi, and Lia. On Mykonos western shore you will find Agios Stefanos, Houlakia, Tourlos, Megali-Ammos and Agios Yannis.

Delos Island

Delos is the Sacred Island of the Ancient Greeks, which according to mythology, was revealed among the waves of the Aegean to Leto, who was being chased by the jealous Hero; it was the refuge where she gave birth to Apollo and Artemis.

On Delos are found the admirably well-preserved ruins of one of the largest, most significant, and best-organized ancient Greek settlements. In the 1873 the French Archaeological School of Athens started excavations and restoration enabling the wealth of the islands history to be revealed to everyone who is interested. The Archaeological Museum of Delos house one of Greece’s most significant collections, including rare exhibits of ancient sculpture ceramic vessels, epigraphs and wonderful mosaics etc. The sites of Delos and Rhenia are under the protection of the Ministry of Culture; thus, both the mooring of private boats there and staying overnight without official permission are strictly forbidden.
